-year) period, with the faculty

member's Annual Evaluations from this venyear period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a primary (but not sole) set the period serving as a period serving as a

The faculty number under review will provide the following items in the SPE portfolio: (a) a current curriculum vitae; (b) copies of the last seven annuighasents and annual evalutions; (c) a copy of the SPE performance evaluation criteria and procedures of the department; (d) a brief (two to threepage) narrative of accomplishments in all three areas of teaching, research, and service for the period undreview; and if applicable, (e) a copy of the previous SPE report, if such exists.