VIII. BOT Member Comments

Trustee Davis said he was sad to see two of our trustees roll off. He welcomed new trustees Cane and Feingold. He also thanked the faculty and staff for doing an outstanding job this past year during Covid. Trustee Levine thanked Trustees Rubin and Feingold and welcomed Trustees Cane and Feingold. Trustee Burns echoed the sentiments on the trustees and on the faculty and staff. He noted this economy is resilient and bouncing back with FAU in the right spot to take advantage. Trustee Wagner said it has been a tumultuous year. He is impressed by the faculty and staff and how we have dealt with this adversity. Trustee Persaud noted the April meeting will be her last one as Student Government President. She said she knows the next president will do a great job and continue to do great things with the students. Trustee Stilley said this is a great opportunity for the university. We need to take advantage of it. Trustee Feingold thanked the governor for appointing her to this board. She recognized her husband for his contributions to FAU these past 11 years. She was impressed with the board meeting and the reports from the chair and the president. Trustee Cane said he was very happy to be back on the board. He noted that it's the board's job to lead and give President Kelly the latitude to make some changes where appropriate. Chair Moabery followed up on Trustee Feingold's comment that thanks to the governor, this state is flourishing. With many people coming in from different states, this is an exciting time for the state.
