Provost Bret Danilowicz states that the transition online has went well working with OIT and eLearning.

Next week, we will have to decide as a University on a pass/fail option for students.

The withdrawal date has been moved to April 10th.
Provost Danilowicz discusses Canvas and Webex etiquette issues that may arise.
Finally, we need to have a conversation with student organization advisors about co-curricular activities.
